Dear Patron,

Continental Holdings has been in the recruiting industry for three decades, giving the company a competitive edge in the marketplace. Our extensive experience in managing the recruiting process for large corporations is driven by a desire to provide professionalism and reliability to our clients. Our vast databases on the best sources of manpower for each industry that we have built over the years of service allow us to get a head start with minimal lead time in closing large scale recruiting processes. We are now well positioned to serve more clients across a wider range of geographies and industry verticals in order to meet the growing need for skilled manpower.

We will be delighted to assist your organisation with all of its recruiting requirements. We look forward to establishing a solid working relationship for your manpower needs.

Yours sincerely
